50/12-14-1tp

In loving memory of our mother, Pearl Booker, who passed away December 18, 1979.
It's been four years since you're been gone.
Those years have been forever long.
Even though you're far away,
We think of you each night and day.
And each day seems to bring another memory of how our life use to be.
And even though the years go by,
Your loving memory will never die.

Rocks community news notes

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Rocks - Dec. 4: Here's wishing the Editor of the Times-Virginian and his staff and all the readers a Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year.

Raymond Dickerson killed an eight-point buck last Saturday morning on Charlie G. Ranson's farm.

Sympathy goes out to the family of Mrs. Gladys Coleman Wilkerson who was buried at Olive Branch Church Saturday afternoon, Dec. 3. She died at Southside Hospital.

It was good to have a couple from another state, Oklahoma, to make a number of calls in Rocks and other neighborhoods on Friday and Saturday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wagner who had spent a while with his parents in North Carolina. They were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Martin and James on Friday night. On Saturday morning they called in Harry W. Ranson's home, Aulden Roach's home, and Clyde Webber's home before starting back that afternoon. It was good to see them.

Lloyd Richardson killed a deer last week. Ed Mason killed his first turkey this week.

Glad to say Herman Wingfield is back home from the hospital doing real well. May he have a speedy recovery.

Hazel Moon, a retired missionary spoke at Rocks Sunday night. She delivered a very inspired message.

Nancy Williams went to Danville to speak at a B.Y.W. meeting on Sunday night. Wes Williams accompanied her there.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham McLaughlin are all smiles. It's another girl, Sara Ruth, born at Virginia Baptist Hospital on Dec. 5. She weighed 8 lbs. and 2 oz.

A speedy recovery is wished Tommy Goin, who is at home after a long stay in the hospital. He is walking with a walker.

The Fidelis Sunday School Class had their Christmas dinner on Tuesday night with Louise Roach.

The B.W. Ladies and Men observed the special Week of Prayer program for Foreign Missions on Wednesday night, Dec. 7. The goal is $1600. Hope it will be reached.

Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Roach were in Farmville on Wednesday doing their Christmas shopping.

Betty Louini of Connecticut arrived Monday to visit her father, Mr. Roy Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Moore for a few days.

It's good to hear Kermit Paulette will be returning home from the hospital on Saturday of this week.

A very sad gloom was cast over the county on Wednesday morning when news came that our beloved friend Shirley Martin had passed away at her home near Evergreen. Sympathy goes out to her family and relatives. She will be greatly missed. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin, Jr. and children of Texas arrived Thursday for the funeral of his mother, Shirley on Friday afternoon at Robinson Funeral Home.

Greg Hipps of Hawaii arrived Thursday night for a leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hipps of Pamplin, before going to Texas where he will be stationed.

The Rocks Community Club had their meeting and Christmas party with Ann and Tommy Spain Thursday night. The men came along also. Gifts were exchanged. All had a wonderful time.

There's been a big change in the weather. It is very cold here now.

The dark tobacco market opened this week. Hope the farmers will be satisfied with the prices.

Get well wishes go out to Mrs. Helen McLaughlin, who is not feeling well.

Lyn-CAG announces On-the-Job Training Program Monday, December 19, 1983 at the Lyn-CAG office, Church and Main St., next to Appomattox Hardware.
Application being taken for training jobs in area business and industry.
We pay up to one-half of your salary for:
800 training hours for adults
500 training hours for Youth, ages 17 through 21 years old who have completed H.S. or G.E.D.
You need to bring with you proof of birthdate, residence, family income, present school status, veteran (DD 214), current or most recent employment.

St. Luke news

The Dec. 4 preaching service at St. Luke Baptist Church was well attended. Pastor Jones was in charge. He sang a solo before his sermon. His sermon dealt with Esthetics in Religion. He painted a picture of the joy and contentment one has in religion. The adult choir provided music, and the Rev. Alvin Jones assisted in the opening devotions.

Communion was carried out with much feeling.

The pastor, choir and members of St. Luke were engaged at the service at White Oak Grove Baptist Church Dec. 11.

Mr. Russell Hunter, Mrs. Maggie Claytor and Mr. Armistead are currently in the hospital. The Maggie Claytor, Sr. Club had their Christmas party at their club house Monday, Dec. 11.

Let us pray for the sick and the shut-in, and may you have the joys of the season ahead.

Mt. Shiloh news notes

The Rev. Robert Higgins delivered an inspirational message Sunday. The service was enjoyed by all attending.

The sympathy of all in the community goes out to the Hudson and Scruggs families in the loss of their loved one, Mrs. Mary Hudson.

Preparations are being made for our Christmas program, next Sunday at 6 p.m. Please come out and make the program a success.

There will be a rehearsal on Thursday at 6 p.m. for the Christmas program. We are asking that all interested people please come out and share their talents to help get in the Christmas spirit.

We pray for the sick in the community and elsewhere.

Have a nice week.

AARP planning big party

The Pamplin Chapter of American Association of Retired Persons will have their Christmas party on Dec. 20 at noon in the friendship hall of the United Methodist Church in Pamplin.

There will be a luncheon for all, plus gifts and entertainment with carol singing and soloists.
